Good morning Mr Doyle,

Thank you for contacting Bedfordshire Police on behalf of Mr Aidan Wilson in respect of Father Patrick Crowe.

Unfortunately, until there are any confirmed offences of fraud or theft, we would consider this to be a civil matter.

You have not mentioned if Father Crowe's nephew had been spoken to, as the executor of the will, to see if he can provide information as to what happened to the worldly goods of Father Crowe. In the first instance you would need to speak to him as he may be able to provide the information you seek.

Has any attempt been made to speak to Father Crowe's brother to establish how the car ended up in his possession?
Has Father Crowe's order been approached to establish if they received any of his possessions?

Depending on what information you obtain from making your enquiries, we would advise you and Mr Wilson to seek legal advice with regards to the law surrounding last wills and testaments.

If, once you or an instructed solicitor, have conducted your own enquiries and there is any further information for us to consider with regards to investigating a theft or fraud, please contact us again quoting Bedfordshire Police reference BP-09102024-0123.

If we can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind regards

Maureen Wright 8664
